

Sample Enterprise SLA Excerpt — Managed Network Services Agreement

Contract Reference: NCS-ENT-SLA-2026-0447 | Client: Sample Enterprise Client (Anonymised for Training) | Classification: Internal Training Use Only (Sample Data)

Clause 4: Service Availability Guarantee

The Service Provider guarantees a Network Uptime of 99.5% measured monthly across all in-scope network elements, excluding scheduled maintenance windows communicated at least 5 business days in advance.

Clause 5: Penalty for SLA Breach

Should monthly Network Uptime fall below 99.5%, the Client shall be entitled to a service credit equal to 2% of the monthly service fee for every 0.1% shortfall below the guaranteed threshold, capped at a maximum of 20% of the monthly service fee in any single month.

Clause 6: Exclusions

The Service Provider shall not be liable for downtime caused by: (a) Force Majeure events, (b) Client-caused network misconfiguration, (c) third-party ISP or power utility outages outside the Service Provider's direct control, or (d) scheduled maintenance windows properly communicated under Clause 4.

Clause 7: Renewal and Termination

This Agreement renews automatically for successive 12-month terms unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the then-current term's expiry. Either party may terminate for uncured material breach following a 30-day cure period after written notice.

Clause 8: Reporting Obligations

The Service Provider shall furnish the Client with a monthly SLA performance report within 5 business days of month-end, detailing actual uptime, any breach events, and corresponding service credits applied.

Clause 9: Escalation Path

Disputes regarding SLA measurement shall first be escalated to the respective Account Managers, then to a joint governance committee within 10 business days, before either party may pursue formal dispute resolution under Clause 14 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction).
